Dear Robert,

As you know, we had an audit done some time ago that yielded only $1500 in refunds with a fee that was much higher than yours. I must say that I am amazed at the results CRC has been able to provide Modo Eyewear simply because the first auditor claimed there were no further savings opportunities beyond the $1500 refund they had recovered. I had no reason to doubt them at the time but they could not have been more wrong.

Through your free analysis, we have now realized a recurring annual savings of well over $35,000 plus substantial refunds totaling approximately $30,000.

I could not be happier with your company, your staff and your service. I recommend to any organization that has an in house Telecom staff or that has had a previous audit done, to strongly consider giving CRC an opportunity to shine as you've clearly done for my organization. I will gladly recommend CRC to my friends and associates.

Thanks again for all your help,

Darren Scheer
